

John Duncan McIntosh

John Duncan McIntosh, age 19, died early Thursday, July 18, 2013 at home. Born in Salisbury, Maryland, he was the son of Robert Keith and Sabra Parker McIntosh. In addition to his parents, he is survived by his brother, Parker A. McIntosh, his grandmother, Margaret Elaine McIntosh, uncles and aunts, Joseph E., Jr. and Alana B. Parker, M. Edward and Kathy C. Parker, Stephen E. and Annette S. Parker, Johnpaul and Bethann McIntosh-King, R. Lee and Amy B. McElrath, John D. and Lynne M. Spenia, Thomas J. and Mickie McIntosh, and James D. and JoAnne W. McIntosh. He is also survived by cousins, Joseph E. Parker, III, Jacob J. Parker, Edward S. Parker, Fletcher Q. Parker, Rachel R. Parker, Leah P. Zumberge, S. Scott Parker, Jordan A. McIntosh, Rachel L. Spenia, Sean P. McElrath, Ian W. McIntosh and Meagan E. McIntosh, as well as numerous other relatives. Duncan was preceded in death by his grandparents, Joseph E. Parker, Sr., Jan E. Quillin Parker Gantz, Edwin J. McIntosh, and aunt Jaris "Bebe" Parker.

Duncan graduated from Worcester Preparatory School in 2011 and finished his sophomore year at Clemson University in the spring of 2013. He loved all things outdoors, especially boating, fishing, cooking and barbecuing for and with family and friends. He was an annual volunteer at the Atlantic Coastal Trust plant sales and Coast Days from an early age. He could fix most anything. His infectious smile was a delight to his family and gave him a wide group of friends, young and old. Duncan is loved by many and we will miss him in our daily lives.